

A black and white photograph of an archaeological excavation. The scene shows a stone wall or foundation made of large, rounded stones. In the foreground, there is a large pile of smaller stones and debris. A scale bar is visible in the lower left corner. A small white label with black text is placed on the ground near the center-right.

CPG - 90
SECTION - 20
GIRAS
EB NO. 1.1